REVERIES

Dear Friends:

My mind is still brimming with images from this past weekend: the Parish Hall bedecked with red feathers and French murals for the auction, swarming with people dressed to the nines. It's a critical fundraiser for us; thank you for coming and for bidding high! And then, the next day, the same Parish Hall, but this time with metal folding chairs all in a row, and a hushed silence, as many of you gathered to watch a film about World War II, the rescue of refugees by Unitarians, the early role our Unitarian headquarters played in turning American attention to the Holocaust. And the applause in the Sanctuary when Gary announced we raised the money, completed the Capital Campaign!

There is a strong sense of energy and vitality here in this community. The light, or "soul flame," that you bring makes a difference! We need you. Whether you have been here for years or are just new, we hope you are finding a niche here where you can unearth your own talents and gifts, where you can find your ministry, where you can grow your soul.

For me, during the months of February, March and April of 2010, I'll be trying to do some of that soul work on sabbatical. My plans are still in formation, but I hope to return to the library as I have done in years past, continuing my exploration of the transcendentalists. I have a big stack of books piled up but not much time to read them in the course of an everyday week. I am interested in the transcendentalists' encounter with Europe and their response to what they saw there — how it changed them and helped to shape their ideas, their practical work in the world, their spiritual lives.

I expect to return to Italy during this time, as well as continue my work as chair of the UUA Margaret Fuller Bicentennial committee, which is planning for General Assembly in Minneapolis next June. May 23, 2010, is the 200th anniversary of Margaret Fuller's birth. There is a group working here at First Parish to celebrate the life of this woman, who is now considered a "public intellectual" on the same rank as Emerson, Alcott and Thoreau.

Sabbatical comes from the same root as "sabbath," and the core idea, as Judaism has so brilliantly taught us, is to rest. The Sabbath day was one day in the week we were required to rest, to enjoy the creation and one another. So I'll be trying to rest, enjoy my family, exercise, garden, maybe even take that yoga class I've been talking about for so long. I thank you for this gift of time away and look forward to sharing with you new discoveries when I get back.

—In faith,

Jenny Rankin

PARISH NOTES

Tres Bien Auction Success!

The Auction team is pleased to announce that the “Mastering the Art of French Bidding” auction raised more than $30,000 for the First Parish operating budget! Final figures are still in process, but the enthusiasm and generosity of our First Parish staff, members and friends exceeded our best hopes! Many thanks to Caroline McCloy, head chef; Jim McCloy, auctioneer and sous chef; Leslie Koplow, decorations; Bob Treitman, cashier operations, with Stephanie Chiha; Eric Read, online auction operations; Kate Keleher, graphics (books, tickets, posters), Cynthia Ellis and Phyllis Savage, raffle baskets; Tracey Hurd, vacation homes and posters; Mary Lou Toussaint and Anne Fortier, beverage service; Dave Elwood, setup/cleanup; Melissa Gallo, staff liaison and witty writer of item descriptions; and the many, many willing and generous volunteers who made the operation run so smoothly and well!
— Lillian Anderson and Margaret Stewart, Auction cochairs

Thanks for Another Great Fair

This year's Holiday Artisans Fair was another fantastic communal effort and a great success. It was a festive event that provided fun-filled shopping for unique gifts and a café of great food. There are too many people to list here. However, special thanks go to Jen Petersen and all the artisans, Rhoda Miller and the kitchen crew, Barbara Wheeler and all the volunteers and Doug Baker and the sextons and the cleanup crew.
— Dian Pekin, chair, Holiday Artisans Fair

The Cats and Their Folks Are Happy

The catnip balls that have been created by Cindy McLean-Greeley and her many hardworking angels for our annual Holiday Artisans Fair for the past 40-plus years are always a big hit. They sold out quickly! The Concord area cats thank you! For future fairs, the WPA would like to do something special for our dog friends as well. Please send suggestions for items that could be crafted for dogs to pekindc@comcast.net.

New Sponsors Needed for the Transylvania Student Sponsorship Program 2009-2010

Five freshmen are looking for a First Parish sponsor. Sponsors are asked to provide $400 a year for four years, and to correspond regularly with their high school students. We are introducing two new categories of sponsorship, Contributor and Pen Pal. A Contributor wishes to provide financial aid only, and a Pen Pal wishes only to correspond with a student. If you would like to become a Sponsor, Contributor or Pen Pal, please contact Sue Beck at sbeck345@comcast.net or 978-369-8445. Stop by if you see me at coffee hour to see the letters and photos from our new students.

First Parish Theatre Project

We have many people interested in exploring and reading plays at First Parish. We meet on the first Friday of the month at First Parish. This month, on Friday, December 4, at 7 p.m., we will be reading Lillian Hellman's classic drama The Children's Hour. It is a drama dealing with

Caring Connection

The Caring Connection freezer is now full of delicious Irish beef stew and Tuscany chicken stew. A big thank-you goes to Rhoda Miller, Bev Bringle, Martha Wallace, Linda Reynolds, Judy Dembsey, Marty Stern, Petra Betts, Valerie Holt, Jane Johnson, Darien Smith, Ginger Lang and Lois Mitchell and — to Lois Suarez, who not only was there all morning washing pots but came back at five to help Rhoda fill containers and put them in the freezer.

Threshold Choir — Singing and Pastoral Care Joined

The newly formed Threshold Choir meets the first and third Thursday of the month from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. You do not have to be a member of the choir to participate and there are no singing auditions — all voices are welcome. Threshold choirs provide pastoral care through life's transition by singing rounds, chants, lullabies, classical choral music, spirituals and hymns. When there is a request, two or three members (men and women) visit a parishioner's bedside, home, or place of his or her choosing, singing songs that appeal to the individual's taste.

We experience many thresholds in life. Birth and death are the ones we think of first, but there are other times — such as prior to or after surgery, during chemotherapy or radiation, after receiving a diagnosis that changes how you perceive your life, or getting married.

Beth Norton and I thank Laurie Corelle, who discovered Threshold Choir at the Indian Hill Music Center in Littleton. This summer Beth attended the class and immediately saw how a Threshold Choir could provide another dimension to pastoral care here and to those who participated. Threshold choirs provide the opportunity for the singers at the biweekly practices to experience the gift of singing as well as the gift of being sung to, since members take turns being the singer and the receiver of song.

The philosophy of Threshold Choirs promotes the practice of loving kindness and compassion for each of the participants, who attend practices when they can and go out to sing to a parishioner with one or two others when they feel ready. It is acceptable to attend only practices. And of course, we only go to parishioners who request a visit from this choir.

Covenant Groups

Covenant Groups meet to explore what it means to be human. Following is a quote by Forrest Church, which was used by one the covenant groups to explore what it means “to the face the darkness [of humanity] and redeem the day.” If you would like to belong to a covenant group, call me or e-mail mksaphier@comcast.net.

“Never forget this. Never forget the email sent by a doomed employee in the World Trade Center [on 9/11/01], who, just before his life was over, wrote the words, ‘Thank you for being such a great friend.’ . . . Pay close attention to these and every other note of almost unbearable poignancy as it rings amidst the cacophony. Pay attention and then commit them to the memory of your heart. For though the future as we know it is no longer, we now know the very worst of which human beings are capable can bring out the very best. From this day forward, it becomes our common mission to be mindful of both aspects of our nature: to counter the former while aspiring to the latter; to face the darkness yet redeem the day.” ♦

—Margie King Saphier

I am writing this early, on November 5, because tomorrow I leave for El Salvador with the Sight & Bite Team, who run free eye and dental clinics, one of which will be at Centro Arte para la Paz, where our youth went last year. Before they returned home, the youth presented two framed documents to Sister Peggy — the First Parish benediction in English and in Spanish. They now hang on the wall at Centro Arte. In addition to assisting in the eye clinic, I will photograph the benedictions for the youth and all of you to see.

SUNDAY FORUMS

December 6

Ronald J. Catella has been the Owner's Representative for First Parish's now completed addition. He will review some of the issues that challenged his 40-plus years experience as a construction project manager. A few pictures will be shown to point out some of the surprises that were discovered and solved during the construction process.

December 13

Because of the long-standing relationship First Parish in Concord has had with Santa Claus we are glad to announce that he will be here again this year. He has indicated that with the many demands on his busy schedule he could be at Lexington Road between only 10:10 and 10:50. His timing fits perfectly with First Parish, and we hope many of you will be able to support his generosity.

We welcome speakers from the congregation as well as other ideas for future Forums. Please contact Charles Lowell at chasrlo@verizon.net or Robert Hilsinger at rhilsinger@verizon.net. ♦

PARTNER CHURCH COMMITTEE

Beyond our shared religious roots, nearly half a millennium ago, what's the deal with Transylvania anyway? The PCC asks you to mark your calendars now for a very special evening, Friday, January 8, when this year's Balázs scholar, Rev. Róbert Bálint, will join us for a potluck supper at First Parish.

Each year the Balázs scholarship program brings an exceptional young Unitarian Transylvanian minister to study at the Starr King UU Graduate School in Berkeley, California. And each year dozens of UU congregations throughout the country vie for the honor of hosting that exceptional young minister during his or her semester break. For one evening in January, First Parish has that honor. The evening's festivities will begin at 6 p.m. We'll have a sign-up sheet during Sunday coffee hours in December. Bring your curiosity, your favorite dish and a healthy appetite.

In other news, it is with great delight that we announce the dedication of the Keresztúr Terrace in front of the new RE wing, currently designated as such with a temporary plaque. A permanent bronze plaque will soon replace it.

The PCC would like to thank everyone who signed the "Thank You" card to our Székelykeresztúr friends for their astonishing recent donation to our First Parish capital campaign. A group picture of those in attendance at the Building Dedication ceremony on Sunday, November 8 will be included with our card. Meanwhile, news of the remarkable gift still reverberates, including at the UUA level with a piece in the most recent UU World. Go to www.uuworld.org/news/articles/152568.shtml.

The Partner Church Committee always welcomes new members. Our next supper meeting will be held at the home of Rodger Mattlage and Pat Brinkman on Thursday, December 10, at 6:30 p.m. For more information, contact either cochair by e-mail — Lillian Anderson (lillianand@comcast.net) or Winslow Pettingell (LondonSW11@aol.com). For the latest PCC news and information, including more about Rev. Bálint and the Balázs Scholar Program, go to www.firstparish.org/cms/committees/partner-church.

Winter Solstice Celebration

The First Parish Women's Circle invites everyone to a celebration of the Winter Solstice on Monday, December 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the church Parlor. We'll tell stories, sing songs, enjoy the longest night, and observe the magic of the turning season — complete with wonderful music and seasonal treats. This celebration is planned to include all ages, in the tradition of a village gathering. Welcome, Yule!

The 2009 UUA General Assembly in Salt Lake City was a historic one for music leaders in our UU congregations. At the Service of the Living Tradition, the annual worship service that recognizes credentialed UU clergy and, more recently, credentialed Religious Educators, the UUA officially acknowledged the first class of seven credentialed UU Music Leaders.

The intent of the UUA's new Music Leader Credentialing program is to summon music leaders to their calling of music ministry and enrich their service to Unitarian Universalist congregations. The program articulates standards for UU music leadership in the areas of musical competence, UU heritage and values, and leadership and interpersonal skills. It provides a three-year path to develop the proficiency and knowledge needed to meet these standards and holds the candidate and credentialed music leader accountable to these standards.

I have had the privilege of participating in the design and implementation of this credentialing program, a process that spanned most of this past decade. In May, I was appointed to the UUA's Music Leader Credentialing Committee, the body that evaluates candidates and ultimately bestows the credential. In November, I attended my first meeting of this committee and was impressed by the depth and quality of the candidates' work and professional development. It bodes well for the future of UU Music ministry!

I am very pleased to say that Gail Carey, our Children's Choir director, is currently a candidate in this program. Gail has successfully completed her first year of study, and Margie King Saphier recently became her sponsor on behalf of First Parish. Gail's work in this credentialing program has already had a positive impact on our Children's Choirs and, increasingly, on the wider congregation and community. I am proud of First Parish's connection to this credentialing program that will benefit our congregation's music ministry as well as music ministry in the wider denomination. ♦

Blessings

— Beth Norton

An Afternoon of Christmas Carols

Are you in 4th, 5th or 6th grade? Do you know all of the words to the "Twelve Days of Christmas"? Do you have a favorite Christmas song? Come sing with us for an afternoon — just for fun. We'll have the words — don't worry. Just come to the Parish Hall on Wednesday, December 9, from 5:15 to 6:00 p.m. We'll provide the cider and snacks. For questions, call Gail Carey, Children's Choir Director at 781-626-3043. See you there!

Music Outreach to the UU Urban Ministry

In the spirit of shared song, a few of our First Parish Music Program staff will be heading out to First Parish in Roxbury on Saturday, December 5. Accompanied by several First Parish song-loving volunteers, we will be offering a music workshop to young children who are served by the UU Urban Ministry. This social justice ministry is supported by member congregations that make financial contributions and participate in the social justice work of UUUM. The workshop will be led by Gail Carey, First Parish children's choir director, and will be part of their weekend Explorers Club. This monthly club is part of UUUM's Stand High/Stand United weekend enrichment program, serving about 50 at-risk children between the ages of 7 and 12. A few First Parish members are already long-term participants within this program. If you would like to join us on December 5 from 10:00 to noon, please contact either Mark Richards (mark.s.richards@verizon.net) or Claudia Nimar (cnimar@aol.com). ♦

PIPEWORK

Progress continues on the First Parish organ project at the Russell & Company shop in Vermont. Work has begun on rebuilding and retrofitting the existing organ console to serve as a secondary console in the balcony. Once this work is done, the console will be prepared to play the different sections of the new instrument as it gradually takes shape. This will be especially helpful, since it will take months for the new console to be built. Parts of the existing console that can be removed will be taken to the organ builder's shop for this rebuilding and retrofitting process in order to save travel and production time.

Work continues at the Russell shop on rank-by-rank pipe evaluations, and designs for the new pipe work. November and December are busy months for organ builders as much of their time is spent on maintenance and tuning for their regular clients during the late autumn through Christmas. Russell & Company is also in the final stage of completing the organ project in line before First Parish. They expect this project to be finished by Christmas.

After the first of the year, periodic work will be done on site at First Parish, and we expect after a few months we should be ready to hear one of the organ divisions as it comes to life for hymn playing and less complex organ music. ♦

— Eric and Beth

REFLECTION AND RE NEWS

This term in our Second through Sixth Grade program, we are exploring one of our six Unitarian Universalist sources — Jewish and Christian teachings that call us to Love

Thy Neighbor. In this term, we are learning from both the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Testament. We begin with a story or parable and then turn this into a hands-on expression of loving thy neighbor. Our children are listening to “The Feeding of the Five Thousand,” discussing the possibilities of that miracle story, and then doing the work of feeding many people. All of our hands come together, making soup and bread for our congregation and for the UUSC. By bringing active life to these stories, we are giving our children the opportunity to live them and feel the power of working in community to accomplish something no one of us could have done alone. I believe that is one reason we come to First Parish, all of us — to experience life in ways that could not be done in isolation. The power of human connection, organization and cooperation that enliven the spirit and help us define personal meaning in our daily lives. ♦

— Pam Howell

OWL Mandatory Parent Orientation

Our Mandatory Parent Orientation nights are December 2 and 3 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. During this time, parents will meet our excellent OWL leaders: Mark Russell Prior, Peter Nobile, Lora Venessy and Laura Warner. We are lucky to have these knowledgeable and experienced leaders working with our children in this important First Parish program. The first OWL class begins on January 24.

Calling the Littlest Angels!

First Parish children three-years-old up to First Grade will be donning their angel garb on Sunday, December 20. Please do not miss this joyous occasion.

Would your child like to be a lamb? A shepherd? The baby Jesus? I know mine did! Please contact Bridget Neale Paris if you would like to be part of this long-standing Christmas Eve tradition at First Parish. Sign up for one or both service times — December 24, at 4:00 p.m. or at 5:30 p.m. Contact Bridget at b3@smd7.com.

Mark Your Calendars for December 11 and 12, at 7 p.m. in the Parish Hall

Under the strong leadership of Brenda Fingold and Victoria Rizzi, our 8th graders have been working each Sunday to prepare the humorous play “The Best Christmas Pageant Ever.” This is an intergenerational play for ages five and up. It playfully celebrates our Unitarian Universalist values of inclusion and the inherent worth and dignity of each person. Your family is sure to enjoy this heart-warming dramatic event and First Parish tradition. Come and see the play your child will be performing in when they too are in 8th grade.

Children’s Holiday Craft Workshop!

“Oh, the weather outside is frightful, but inside it’s so delightful...”

The Tradition Is Back!...the Children’s Holiday Craft Workshop is on Saturday, December 5, from 1:30-4:30 p.m. at First Parish.

Please join us at this wonderful workshop to watch our children with magic in their eyes and a smile on their face and feel the joy that only making a gift for someone or some pet you love brings!

SENIOR YOUTH NEWS

The youth, like adults, look for opportunities to connect and feel the spirit of the holidays in the midst of the commercialism and craziness of this season. We have planned a December that we hope provides youth with opportunities for connection and peace. I continue to be proud of the youth as they work to provide a patient and welcoming presence with one another.

Look over the December calendar and youth should feel free to come to everything or drop in when it works for them. Please take special note that YRUU alums (college students) are welcome to come to our holiday party in December.

- December 6 Snowballs
- December 13 Trust Games
- December 20 Holiday Party (Yankee Swap and Cookie Baking). Bring something you already own, but don't want (wrapped) Alums welcome!
- December 27 No YRUU — Winter Vacation

Applications for the April Vacation Youth Service Trip to New Orleans are due December 10. This is an amazing opportunity for our youth to work rebuilding homes in the 9th Ward in New Orleans through our association with Gulf Coast Works. If you have any questions, contact me or Faith Bade (Social Action Director).

The Youth Group sponsors a Transylvanian student's education by earning $400 for him each year. In the summers of 2007 and 2009, we got to meet our student, Hunni, whom we all loved. This year we are asking each youth to find a way to earn $10 and donate it to our fund. It's a small thing for our youth to do that has a huge impact on Hunni.

As always, I welcome calls or e-mails. May your December be full of joy! ♦

I am writing this after helping to decorate for the First Parish Auction. The group working away in the Parish Hall and kitchen are amazing. It again makes me question how we define social action. These First Parish members are contributing significantly to the success of this auction event, which ultimately funds the whole of First Parish, which ultimately creates the opportunities for us to “go out into the world.” Our outreach is visible and our impact significant. The SAC board chose our theme of “home” this year partly because everything we do begins in the home. Our First Parish home is an incredible launching point for our social action work. Thank you for all that you do. ♦

Social Action Program Director

Crop Walk Thanks

Many thanks to all who made the 2009 Crop Walk a great success — walkers, volunteers, and sponsors alike. Despite the challenge of rain and snow, walkers raised an amazing $53,000 for hunger relief! Any outstanding pledge money should be turned in to the office as soon as possible.

Caroling Party at the Prison Farm

Please join us on Friday, December 4, from 7 to 9 p.m. for the annual caroling party at the prison farm, Concord’s minimum-security facility. Each year people from Concord-area faith communities join with the inmates for this festive holiday event, an interesting and moving experience for all. Participants 18 and over are welcome, but you must sign up ahead by calling Lenore at 978-369-1430 before November 30. Questions? Call Lenore. Feeling timid? Contact Don Miller at 781-646-4965 or donaldbmiller@com-cast.net.

“Soldiers of Peace: Stories from 14 Countries around the World”

On Sunday, December 6, 1:00–3:00 p.m., the Mass. Campaign for a U. S. Department of Peace will demonstrate, with this film, that peace is breaking out all over! The Peace Alliance, made up of the state campaigns, featured the film at its annual conference. Its stories inspire us to continue building peace in all the ways offered by the First Parish Social Action Community and in our relationships. Following the film, we will answer questions.

A Thank-You

Thank you to all who attended the “Journey to Freedom” film screening on November 15. This story of moral courage was sponsored by the First Parish Social Action Community and our UUSC representatives, Sue Beck and Leslie Fisher.

Environmental Leadership at First Parish

We continue to refine what our role as a faith community is within the environmental movement. Stay tuned for our next event as we continue to form our vision. Meanwhile, thank you to all who participated in the 350.org rally at the Old North Bridge on October 24. This was a wonderful event and almost 100 First Parishioners attended. The Carbon Monster puppet created with the help of the RE 7th graders was a big hit. Thank you to CC King, Margot Kimball and Bob Andrews for making this happen.

Youth Service Trip to New Orleans, April 2010 Youth and Chaperones Needed

There will be a final informational meeting Sunday, December 6, at 6 p.m. at First Parish regarding the Youth Service trip to Annunciation Mission (www.annunciationmission.org) from April 17-24, 2010. Contact Faith Bade (FBade@firstparish.org) or Mary-Wren vanderWilden (vanderWilden@verizon.net) with questions.

SAC Holiday “Organizations in Need 2009” Deadlines

Please see our website for more details, but the essential dates are these: Mitten Tree ends December 13, Renewal House blanket drive and HGRM towel drive ends December 20, UUSC boxes must be returned by December 20, CPO gift bags may be donated until December 6, and Secret Santa donations are due by December 8, as specified when you received your recipient’s information. There are ongoing needs for household items and gently used clothing for Lowell, and Open Table pantry items. The Many Facets of Membership: A Love Story

Once upon a time, there was Jeremy. Jeremy reached a time in his life when he felt pulled to find a church, one where he would feel safe with his questions of faith. After asking neighbors and reviewing websites, he found himself one Sunday morning staring at the large doors that would lead him into the historical church. For a man with a strong sense of adventure, his heart was racing wildly as he strained with the weight of the door, uncertainty gripping his body, like a toddler on the first day of preschool.

Jeremy was greeted warmly by a smiling face and an outstretched hand, a welcome that eased doubt enough for him to find a seat. Caught a little off guard at the intensity of it, he was moved and inspired by the service. Afterward, Jeremy was invited to coffee hour and asked to use a special mug so he could be greeted well. Jeremy complied, and he spent the next half hour talking to members, getting a tour of the building, and learning about the church.

How touched he was with the outreach made to him on his first visit. Jeremy's research drew him in the door; hospitality made him return.

And return he did! As an amateur singer in local theater, Jeremy joined the choir. An advocate for equal rights for all, he joined a committee dedicated to promoting equality and diversity. He provided snacks for coffee hour, volunteered as an elf for a children's craft workshop, and donated flowers for Sunday morning services. There were so many reasons why Jeremy felt at home at this church, the biggest being the community of people of which he had become a part.

After a while, Jeremy wanted to find another way to be of service, a way to give back for the warm, generous welcome he received. Jeremy joined the Membership Committee, where he was encouraged to help newcomers, as well as those seeking another or different connection within the church. It was there he was able to connect on yet another level with the community he had grown to love. The end.

Are you our Jeremy? The Membership Committee is looking for people who are interested in helping with the many ways we connect with each other. Please contact me at jfoley@firstparish.org. ♦

New sac Grants Public Comment Process

The SAC Grants Committee has instituted a new public comment process for all new grant requests. The public comment period for the fall grants requests has ended but stay tuned for the next public comment period after receipt of the spring 2010 Grants requests. Comments can be made online at www.firstparish.org, under Social Action, Grants, Grants Requests & Comments, or via the mail. Contact Wendy Holt, SAC Grants Committee chair, wendyholt48@yahoo.com, with any questions.

Women's Retreat Weekends

Please join other First Parish women for a weekend of fun, introspection and connection with women of all ages. This year we'll explore aspects of laughter and joy through the decades of our lives. Join us for this annual getaway to Senexet House in Woodstock, Connecticut (about 90 minutes from Concord), on one of two available weekends — Friday evening to Sunday afternoon, January 22–24 or January 29–31.

Bedrooms sleep one to five guests, and the meals are fresh, delicious, and prepared by someone else! Registration forms will be available in the church office, or find them online by December 15, at www.firstparish.org/forms. Questions: darien@smithquest.com or 978-369-1471. ♦

Women's AM/PM Book Group

As usual, the Women's Book Group will discuss just one book for November and December; and the selection is Lydia Cassatt: Reading the Morning Paper, by Harriet Scott Chessman. The evening discussion will be Monday, November 30, 7:30 to 9:00 p.m.; and the morning discussion, on Tuesday, December 1, 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. — with both meetings at First Parish.

All women of First Parish are warmly invited to read the current book and join one or both of these discussions. If you would like to be added to the Women's Book Group e-mail list, please contact Darien Smith at darien@smithquest.com or 978-369-1471. ♦ the trauma of false accusations that shatter careers and relationships. The script is easily available, so we are expecting that everyone who attends will be bringing a copy of the play. If you have any difficulty with this, please contact Claudia Nimar at cnimar@aol.com, or Lillian Anderson at Lillianand@comcast.net.

It's Spicy Bouillon Season!

Winter is (nearly) upon us and it is time to think Bouillon! Kel Keleher is soliciting volunteers to help one Sunday a month, by either buying, preparing and serving for the 9:00 o'clock service or serving and cleaning up at the 11:00 o'clock service. Please e-mail him at kel@rkeleher.com or call 978-944-2734 if you are interested in helping with this delicious First Parish tradition.

Christmas Concert and Tea – December 8

Treat yourself and friends to an afternoon of holiday music and a traditional Christmas tea on Tuesday, December 8. The music program will begin at 3 p.m. in the Sanctuary during which the nationally acclaimed Sgt. Daniel Clark, known as "The Singing Trooper," will entertain us with unique renditions of popular holiday tunes and a variety of favorite songs. Clark has performed with the Boston Pops, Donny Osmond, several TV programs and numerous functions across the nation. Tea will be served in the Parlor and Parish Hall at 4 p.m. All men and women of First Parish and their friends are welcome. There is no charge and no reservations are necessary.

Transcendentalism Council

There are many exciting projects being created by our First Parish Transcendentalism Council. We recently cosponsored, with the Thoreau Society, a brilliant reenactment of Thoreau's defense of John Brown, the Emerson Forum, that featured a discussion with Jayne Gordon and Jenny Rankin and Jenny's classes and tours to various historical sites in Concord. We are currently developing plans for celebrating Margaret Fuller's Bicentennial on May 23, 2010 — events that may include lectures, tours and theatrical/musical presentations, as well as a worship service. We are also developing our itinerary for our next travel adventure in "Tracing the Steps of the Transcendentalists" abroad — this time to France. Stay tuned for details. The council meets on the third Thursday of each month. For more information or to get involved, contact Steph Chiha or Lillian Anderson.

Three Cheers for Angela Herrera

Come join us in expressing our thanks on Saturday, December 12, by taking part in Angela Herrera's ordination reception. We will need help with baked goods from home (hint: Angela loves dark chocolate), shopping, being part of a sandwich crew in the morning, platter arranging, table decorating, punch and coffee making, or cleanup. If you can help in any of these areas please get in touch with Rhoda Miller after December 2. Call her at 978-369-6639 or e-mail her at rhodamill@aol.com.

Massachusetts Bay District Served by First Parishioners

The Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations (UUA) serves Unitarian Universalism by providing a venue for UU's from many congregations to come together over common issues and interests. Like any international organization, the UUA breaks down to 19 administrative districts in the United States. First Parish in Concord belongs to the Massachusetts Bay District (MBD). Led by District Executive Teresa Cooley, MBD provides leadership training and programming to 55 congregations in the greater Boston area. See the website at <http://www.mbdoua.org/>.

Two members of First Parish are active in the district. Laura Graham is serving her first year as a member of the District Board of Directors. Laura's leadership experience at First Parish is a valuable asset as the district makes its own transition to Policy Governance. Mark Richards chairs the District Nominating Committee. If you have an interest in serving with congregants from area churches, let either Laura or Mark know.

I. Growing Your Spirit

Tibetan Buddhism

The Buddhist group meets in the First Parish Chapel. These sessions are open to all who are interested in transforming love, compassion and wisdom into action. You are welcome to share the spirit of community at these gatherings, regardless of your familiarity with Tibetan Buddhism. Donations are gratefully accepted. The Venerable Lobsang will return around Christmas. Contact Bill Seaver at 978-369-7318 with questions.

Wednesdays, 9:30–11:00 a.m. and Thursdays 7:30–9:00 p.m.

T'ai Ji

Being in touch with our own energy creates endless possibilities within ourselves. By combining music with qigong and the simple movement of t'ai ji we can release blocked energy, create wellness and bring our lives into balance. This class is geared to people of all ages. It offers gentle low-impact exercise to reduce stress and enhance optimal health, and to simply create a sense of joy in our lives. Taught by Mae Pagan.

Friday, 12/11, 12:30–2:00p.m. $25/class

Covenant Groups

If you are interested in exploring topics such as acceptance, friendship, letting go, evil, death, etc., in an intimate group, consider joining a Covenant Group. Groups of fewer than ten people meet at least once a month for one and a half hours of confidential sharing of spiritual ideas and experiences. The following groups currently have openings:

Sundays, 4:00–5:30 p.m.; contact Bill Seaver, 978-369-7318 or billseaver@earthlink.net.

First and third Sunday of the month, 7:00–8:30 p.m.; contact Mark Richards, mark.s.richards@verizon.net or 978-771-9823.

First and third Tuesday of the month, 2:00–3:30 p.m.; contact Don Miller, donaldbmiller@comcast.net or 781-646-4965.

Tuesdays, 7:00–8:30 p.m.; contact David Downing at dowdav@earthlink.net or 978-263-8454.

Every other Thursday, 1:00–2:30 p.m.; contact Fred Van Deusen at fredvandeu@aol.com or 978-369-0435.

II. Creativity As A Spiritual Path

Sandwiches and Short Story

- Formerly known as “Listening for God,” this informal group meets with Gary Smith once a month to explore a story’s meaning. Bring a sandwich and beverage and join us Wednesday noon, December 9, at 12:15 p.m. The story for December is “Closely Held,” by Allegra Goodman, found in Best American Short Stories 2008, Salmon Rushdie, editor, pb $14.00.

- Wednesday, 12/9, 12:15 p.m.

Rise Up Singing

- This informal monthly musical gathering of adults and children provides participants with an opportunity to sing and share traditional and contemporary folk songs, spirituals, hymns, rounds and chants in fellowship. Singers of all ages and experience are welcome. Bring a copy of Rise Up Singing if you own one. Individuals are encouraged to bring instruments if they wish. Led by Beth Norton and others. No registration necessary.

- Fridays: 12/18, 1/22, 2/26, 3/26, 4/23, 5/21 7:30 p.m.

Tea and Poetry

- Tea and Poetry meets the second Tuesday of the month. Join Rev. Margie King Saphier and Lorraine Loviglio for afternoon tea while sharing your favorite poems and listening to others share theirs (no poetic talent required). This informal monthly gathering is for you if you enjoy poetry or always thought you would if you knew where to start. Bring a poem (or two or three) to read aloud. Relaxed and inspired, we will recall poems we may have loved years ago, discover new ones, and explore the power of poetry to move us to tears or laughter.

- Tuesdays:, 12/8, 1/12, 2/9, 3/9, 4/13, 5/11 3:00–4:30 p.m.

III. Sources of Unitarian Universalism

Humanism

- Concord Area Humanists have these three gatherings planned.
- Monday, November 30, at Wright Tavern, 7:30 p.m., open discussion on “What is Our Mission?” RSVP to Pat Everett at pne@aol.com.
- Tuesday, December 8, 7:30 p.m., the small evening discussion group takes on “Evolution of Reciprocal Altruism.” RSVP to Paula Vandever at vandeverP@aol.com.
- Monday, December 14, at Wright Tavern, 7:30 p.m., celebrate Humanlight and a positive secular vision with an indoor potluck picnic. Bring a finger food and wine to share, and don’t forget your wine glass. We’re attempting a zero-plastic-waste affair. RSVP to Maria Cox, mc2cox@comcast.net.

INVITE A SILENT GUEST

Guest at Your Table boxes, distributed November 15, are "fed" throughout the holidays and returned on December 20. Share the holiday with the work of the UU Service Committee.

CHILDREN'S CRAFTS

Saturday, December 5, 1:30-4:30 p.m. First Parish children are invited to spend the afternoon at the church, making great gifts for the holidays. Adult and teen "elves" are invited to share the fun! E-mail Sue Ward at susan_ward_mail@yahoo.com to help out.

"THE BEST CHRISTMAS PAGEANT EVER"

On December 11 and 12 at 7 p.m. the eighth graders will present this humorous play for 5-year-olds and up. It playfully celebrates the Unitarian Universalist values. Your family is sure to enjoy this heartwarming dramatic event that is part of the First Parish tradition.

YOUTH HOLIDAY PARTY

On December 20, 7:00-9:00 p.m. in the Wright Tavern, all YRUU youth and alumni are invited to come celebrate the holidays by baking cookies and participating in a Yankee Swap. Wrap something that you already own, but do not want anymore.

SOLSTICE REVELS

The First Parish Women's Circle invites everyone to a celebration of the Winter Solstice on Monday, December 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the First Parish Parlor/Parish Hall. We'll tell stories, sing songs, enjoy the longest night, and observe the magic of the turning season—complete with wonderful music and seasonal treats. All ages welcome, in the tradition of a village gathering. Welcome, Yule!

REMEMBER

Add a ribbon to the Holiday Memory Wreath in the Sanctuary; donate poinsettias for services.
